PROCEDURES

The pay period computation is done in two-week periods with 26 pay periods per year. The HR Specialist is required to publish pay periods, pay dates, and holiday schedule annually. Pay dates falling on a holiday will be moved to the prior business day.

Employees are required to approve their timesheet in Paylocity by 12:00 PM on the Monday after a pay period ends.

Supervisors will review timesheets for accuracy. If there are errors, the supervisor will request the employee correct the timesheet. Supervisors are required to approve all timesheets in Paylocity by 12:00 PM on Tuesday.

The HR Specialist will do a final review of all employee timesheets. If errors are found, the HR Specialist will email the employee and supervisor for immediate correction.
