PROCEDURES

A. Immediate Notification of the Unexpected Loss

The person notified of the event should respond quickly by notifying his/her immediate supervisor and/or CEO, who then will notify the following:

1. Chief Executive Officer
2. Leadership Team
3. Human Resource Coordinator
4. Medical Director, when appropriate

The Leadership Team will establish a plan to ensure timely and consistent communication of the unexpected loss to the staff, governing board, and network providers, as appropriate.

Other Tasks to consider:

1. Schedule and organize debriefing as appropriate within 24-48 hours.
2. Assess staff coverage and reassign if necessary.
3. Prepare staff for fielding calls of inquiry.
4. Notify IT that the staff person's voice mail, computer access, etc. may need to be changed.
5. Arrange for personal belongings to be collected and given to staff member or family as requested or deemed appropriate.
6. Keep staff informed of support activities or events related to the unexpected loss.
